Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent; published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Seyyedy et al (2003/0179601). Seyyedy discloses a magnetoresistance device comprising: a magnetoresistance element including: a free ferromagnetic layer (172) having reversible spontaneous magnetization, a fixed ferromagnetic layer (168) having fixed spontaneous magnetization, and a tunnel dielectric layer (170) disposed between said free and fixed ferromagnetic layer; a non-magnetic conductor (156) providing electrical connection between said magnetoresistance element to another element; and a diffusion barrier structure (160) disposed between said conductor and said magnetoresistance element, wherein said diffusion barrier structure is made of material selected from the group consisting of TiN and ZrN (paragraph 0033).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2 to 4 are allowed.
